Department of Preprofessional Studies
Open House Activities for February 13, 2015

Convene in 107 Hesburgh Library-Carey Auditorium

8:45 – 9:20 Introduction to Preprofessional Studies and Collegiate Sequence Majors
Fr. James Foster, Department Chair

9:20 – 9:40 Introduction to Neuroscience and Behavior
Prof. Sunny Boyd

We recommend that you join the Department of Biological Sciences program for the rest of the morning

9:40 – 9:55 Welcome & Introduction to the Biology Department
Prof. Crislyn D'Souza-Schorey, Department Chair

9:55 – 10:15 The Biological Sciences Science majors
Prof. David Veselik, Director of Undergraduate Studies

10:15 – 10:30 Undergraduate Research Presentations by Current Students

Move to Jordan Hall of Science

10:45 – 11:45 Information Table and Tours of Jordan Biology Labs
Jordan Hall of Science Galleria

Table 1: Prof. David Veselik and Prof. Ken Filchak, directors for the biological sciences and environmental sciences major programs, respectively

Prof. Michelle Whaley, undergraduate research and honors faculty coordinator, will provide tours with the assistance of current students. Tours leave every 15 minutes.

Tours start every 15 minutes:
- Tour 1: Genetics and Cell Biology
  Prof. Michelle Whaley
- Tour 2: General Biology
  Prof. T. Mark Olsen
- Tour 3: Greenhouse and Parasitology lab
  Prof. Jennifer Robichaud
12:00 – 1:00 Lunch
South Dining Hall, East Wing (to the left)

1:00 – 2:00 Q&A with current science pre-professional students
Reading Room, Jordan Hall